

WINE LICENSE

ORDINANCE NO. 2000-4

The Town of Cooperstown, Manitowoc County, ordains as follows:

1. PURPOSE. This ordinance provides for issuance of Class C alcohol licenses for wine sales, pursuant to Wis. Stats. s. 125.51(3m).
2. ISSUANCE CONDITIONS. The town may approve issuance of a license when the following conditions are met:
 - A. A reasonable expectation exists, after consideration of past practice and business plan of operation, that more than 50% of revenue by the applicant are received from non-alcohol sales, determined by gross receipts, and
 - B. The premises description for license issuance does not include a barroom, as verified by one or more town officers, employees or agents, and
 - C. A completed application form, containing all relevant information requested has been submitted to the clerk , for board review, and
 - D. The board has evaluated any applicant's arrest or conviction history, which is found to be acceptable, and
 - E. The applicant has resided in Wisconsin at least 90 days, or is a Wisconsin corporation with a resident agent, and
 - F. The applicant is in compliance with other statutory and ordinance regulation affecting the business operation or person applying.
3. FEES. Prior to actual license issuance by the clerk, the fees must be submitted by the applicant. Where past payment history or reputation justifies such action, the clerk or treasurer, in their discretion, may require payment by cash, cashiers check, or postal money order, and the board may order that such form of payment be made. The fee is for a full license year, running July 1 to the next June 30. Fees shall be pro rated to the nearest half month in the event an application is made during the license year, by calculating the first date of possible issuance.

In no case will the annual fee exceed $100.00. The fee is $100.00.

4. PAYMENT DEADLINE. The license fee shall be submitted at the time of license delivery from the town.
5. BUSINESS VERIFICATION. Where appropriate, the board may require verification that the above conditions, or other conditions of statutory or ordinance laws are met, including, but not limited to, the proportion of gross receipts test. This may periodically occur by board direction.
